What does life insurance mean for the Jones family?

Jason and Charlotte just bought their first house and are expecting their first child. They didn't think they could afford life insurance—and they didn't think they needed it because they're young and healthy.

However, Jason's best friend from high school was recently killed in a car accident. Sadly, his wife is selling their home because she can't afford the mortgage on her own.

Jason and Charlotte started to rethink life insurance, and were surprised to find options at work that meet their budget.

Since most people would have trouble paying living expenses after several months if their primary wage earner died, * it may be worth asking, who depends on you?

Protect your paycheck

Imagine you hurt your back, and your doctor recommends you stay home from work for four weeks. Or imagine you just delivered twins. You can't work, but you have bills to pay. Short-term disability replaces part of your income if you can't work for a short time due to a covered disability. You can use the weekly check to help pay everyday expenses, like your mortgage or rent, utilities, childcare and groceries.

How it works

Your employer is offering you and your coworkers this coverage as a group, at a group rate. You are responsible for paying a portion or all of the cost.

Choose the benefit that best meets your needs and your budget.

Additional considerations

| If I have other income       | Income from other sources may reduce your benefit amount. These sources may include Social Security benefits, disability benefits from retirement, government plans or state disability income such as California SDI; other group disability plans; no-fault benefits, salary continuance or sick leave, and return-to-work earnings. For more information or to determine if Voluntary STD or Contributory STD is appropriate for you, contact your Benefits Administrator. |
|------------------------------|---|
| If I can work while disabled | Your plan is designed to encourage and support your return to work. If you are able to work part-time for example, you may receive part of your benefit while working.  |
| If I become pregnant         | Check with your employer to make sure you are eligible for benefits and let them know when you expect to be out of work on maternity leave. Typically a maternity claim is treated as an illness claim (see "When benefits begin" in the table).  |
| If I leave myemployer    | Depending upon state variations and your employer's plan, you may have an option to continue group coverage when your employment terminates. Your employer can advise you about your options.   |

Short-term disability FAQs

What if I have a pre-existing condition?

If you submit a claim within 12 months of your insurance taking effect, or 12 months following any increase in your amount of insurance, we will not pay any benefit for any pre-existing condition. A pre-existing condition includes anything you have sought treatment for in the 90 days prior to your insurance becoming effective. Treatment can include consultation, advice, care, services or a prescription for drugs or medicine.

How do I file a claim after becoming disabled?

Check with your employer to make sure you are eligible for benefits. Then, file a claim with Sun Life. We will ask for information from you about your doctor, your income, and your condition. We will ask for medical records and for your doctor to fill out a form about your condition and your expected recovery. You can download forms from our website.

How do I qualify for benefits?

You'll start receiving disability payments if you satisfy the Elimination Period (see "When benefits begin" in the table) and meet the definition of disability if you're insured when you become disabled.

How is my benefit taxed?

If you pay for your coverage all post-tax, your benefit will not be taxable income or tax reported by us to the IRS. If you pay for your coverage all pre-tax, or if you pay for part of your coverage post-tax and your employer pays for the rest, or if your employer pays the entire premium, some or all of your benefit amount will be taxable income, which will be tax reported on a Form W-2 and it may have FICA tax deductions that reduce the amount we pay you. Please consult with a tax advisor or your employer if you have any questions.

Read the important plan provisions section for more information including limitations and exclusions.

Additional considerations

| If I have other income       | Income from other sources may reduce your benefit amount. These may include disability benefits from social security, retirement, government plans or state disability income; other group disability plans; no-fault benefits, salary continuance or sick leave, and return-to-work earnings. |
|------------------------------|--|
| If I can work while disabled | Your plan is designed to encourage and support your return to work. If you are able to work part-time for example, you may receive part of your benefit while working.   |

Long-term disability FAQs

What if I have a pre-existing condition?

If you submit a claim within 12 months of your insurance taking effect, or 12 months following any increase in your amount of insurance, we will not pay any benefit for any pre-existing condition. A pre-existing condition includes anything you have sought treatment for in the 90 days prior to your insurance becoming effective. Treatment can include consultation, advice, care, services or a prescription for drugs or medicine.

How do I file a claim after becoming disabled?

Check with your employer to make sure you are eligible for benefits. Then, file a claim with Sun Life. We will ask for information from you about your doctor, your income, and your condition. We will ask for medical records and for your doctor to fill out a form about your condition and your expected recovery. You can download forms from our website.

How is my benefit taxed?

If you pay for your coverage all post-tax, your benefit will not be taxable income or tax reported by us to the IRS. If you pay for your coverage all pre-tax, or if you pay for part of your coverage post-tax and your employer pays for the rest, or if your employer pays the entire premium, some or all of your benefit amount will be taxable income, which will be tax reported on a Form W-2 and it may have FICA tax deductions that reduce the amount we pay you. Please consult with a tax advisor or your employer if you have any questions.

How do I qualify for benefits?

You'll start receiving disability payments if you satisfy the Elimination Period (see "When benefits begin" in the table) and meet the definition of disability if you're insured when you become disabled.

Accident FAQs

What happens if I am injured?

Once your claim is approved, Accident insurance pays you a benefit amount if you are hurt or receive treatment as a result of a covered accident. The benefit amount you receive depends on your injury and/or the treatment you receive. Benefits are payable only once for each Covered Accident (unless noted otherwise in the benefit schedule).

Injuries and other related benefits due to a covered accident must be diagnosed or treated within a defined period of time from the date of your accident. This could be as few as three days for certain benefits. Please refer to your certificate for details.

Can I take my insurance with me if I leave my employer?

Depending upon state variations and your employer's plan, you may have an option to continue group coverage when your employment terminates. Your employer can advise you about your options.

How do I file a claim?

We will ask for information from you and your doctor about the specific accident and the treatment provided. You can download forms from our website. Please complete and sign all forms. Missing information or signatures can delay your claim.

Accident insurance is a limited benefit policy. The certificate has exclusions that may affect any benefits payable. Benefits payable are subject to all terms and conditions of the certificate.

Read the important plan provisions section for more information including limitations and exclusions.

Protect your savings in case of a serious illness

An illness can lead to unexpected costs not covered by your health plan. Deductibles and copays, or other costs like travel and child care can reduce your savings. Critical illness insurance provides a cash benefit when you or a person on your plan is diagnosed with a covered condition, like a heart attack or stroke. The benefit is paid directly to you, to use however you want.

How it works

Your employer is offering you and your coworkers this coverage as a group, at a group rate. You are responsible for paying a portion or all of the cost.

How do I file a claim?

If you have a diagnosis after the effective date of coverage, you may file a claim with us. We will ask for information from you and your doctor about your medical condition. You can download forms from our website. Please complete and sign all forms. Missing information or signatures can delay your claim.

Can I receive benefits for more than one critical illness?

Yes; however, there must be at least 6 consecutive months between the diagnosis dates. You can only claim benefits once for each covered condition unless a recurrence benefit is payable (see Additional Plan Features).

What if I have a pre-existing condition?

If you submit a claim within 12 months of your insurance taking effect, or 12 months following any increase in your amount of insurance, we will not pay any benefit for any pre-existing condition. A pre-existing condition includes anything you have sought or received treatment for in the 90 days prior to your insurance becoming effective. Treatment can include consultation, advice, care, services or a prescription for drugs or medicine.

Is my benefit taxable?

If you pay for your coverage all post-tax, your benefit will not be taxable income or tax reported by us to the IRS. If you pay for your coverage all pre-tax, if you pay for part of your coverage post-tax and your employer pays for the rest, or if your employer pays the entire premium, some or all of your benefit amount will be tax reported on a Form 1099 as taxable income. Please consult with a tax advisor or your employer if you have any questions.

Evidence of Insurability

Frequently asked questions

What is Evidence of Insurability?

Your group insurance policy may require Evidence of Insurability (EOI) for you and your dependents. Evidence of Insurability is a statement, or proof, of an employee's or dependent's medical history. We use it to determine whether or not we will provide the benefit you are requesting.

What is the EOI application?

The EOI application is an application on which you and/or your dependent(s) answer "yes" or "no" to questions concerning certain medical conditions. If you answer "yes" to any question(s), you are required to provide specific details of the condition, such as pertinent dates, treatments, and names of physicians. In some cases, a paramedical examination may also be required.

When do I need to submit an EOI application?

You may need to submit an EOI application, if you:

- apply for a coverage amount above the Guaranteed Issue amount,
- declined coverage for yourself or your dependent(s) within the initial eligibility period and are now applying for coverage, or
- enroll yourself or your dependent(s) and then subsequently elect to increase coverage.

Please refer to your benefit highlights page for complete information specific to your plan.

What is the process for submitting an EOI application?

To be considered for coverage, you must complete an EOI application, either online or on paper.

Submit your medical information online

It's the quick, easy, and smart way to submit EOI. And it's completely secure and confidential.

- 1. Have the following information ready:
  - Your group policy number, location, and the amount of coverage for yourself and any dependents who require EOI, and
  - Height, weight, and recent medical history for you and any dependents.

2. Go to www.sunlife.com/account

- Under My Benefits, select a coverage
- On the right hand side, click on Submit Evidence of Insurability (EOI), follow the instructions, review your answers, and sign your application electronically before you submit. You will receive an official acknowledgment that Sun Life has received your EOI application. If you are approved, you may receive an approval e-mail that same day.

Submit your medical information on paper

If you need a paper application, you can access a printable version at www.sunlife.com/account.

- Click Where can I find a form?
- · From list of forms, select EOI Application

After Sun Life receives and processes your EOI application, you will receive either a final decision or pending notification. If your application is pending, you may be contacted to schedule a medical exam (at Sun Life's expense). Coverage subject to EOI will not go into effect until Sun Life approves your application in writing.

How long does the approval process take?

As soon as we have received a completed online EOI application and as soon as the coverage amount is certified by your employer, often we can issue an approval within minutes and notify you or your employer via our online system or e-mail. For paper applications and applications that require review by a member of our medical underwriting team, the process usually takes five to seven business days. This time range is contingent on you returning a complete EOI application and our ability to obtain the necessary health information.

How will I be notified if I am approved?

If you submit your EOI application online and are approved right away, you will receive an e-mail. If you submit your EOI application via fax or mail, a letter will be sent to your home notifying you of the approval.

How will I be notified if I am denied?

If you are denied the requested coverage, a letter is sent to your home. This letter outlines why you were denied and gives you instructions on how you can appeal the decision.

When does my coverage take effect?

Coverage is effective on the later of the date Sun Life approves your application in writing or the date your coverage is effective under your employer's group insurance policy, provided that you or your dependent(s) are eligible under the group policy.

About privacy and security

In accordance with Sun Life's strict privacy practices, your answers to the Health History portion of the EOI application are completely confidential. Sun Life never shows them to your employer. Also, we do not share your e-mail address or other personal information with any third parties except as permitted or required by law. The website includes state-of-the-art security; any information entered is encrypted and transmitted using Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) technology.

These instructions on how to submit an Evidence of Insurability form apply only to life and disability policies.

6 Signature and authorization information

I understand that:

- I am requesting coverage under a Group Insurance policy offered by my employer. This coverage will end when my employment terminates, subject to any portability or continuation provisions available under the Group Insurance policy.
- My employer will deduct all or part of the premium for contributory coverage from my pay.
- If applying for coverage more than 31 days past my eligibility date, Evidence of Insurability (EOI) may be required.
- For Life, Long-Term Disability, Short-Term Disability, and Critical Illness insurance, Evidence of Insurability will be required for amounts over my Guarantee Issue for this enrollment.
- Increases to current Life, Long-Term Disability, Short-Term Disability, and Critical Illness benefits may require Evidence of Insurability.
- If I decline coverage for myself or, if applicable, for my family now and want it at a later date, I/we will have to submit an Evidence of Insurability application, if required for the elected coverage(s), to be approved by Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada. For Dental coverage, I understand that I will not be entitled to benefits until the expiration of any Late Entrant benefit waiting period specified in the certificate of insurance.
- Coverages include limitations, and exclusions and a pre-existing conditions provision that may affect my entitlement to benefits.
- If I am not actively at work due to injury, illness, layoff or leave of absence on the date that any initial or increased coverage is scheduled to start under the plan, such coverage will not start until the date I return to work.
- When required by the coverage, if my spouse or any of my dependent children are confined due to an injury or illness, as required by the coverage, on the date that any initial or increased coverage is scheduled to start under the plan, such coverage will not start until the date they are no longer confined and are able to perform their normal activities.
- Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects such person to criminal and civil penalties.

The Sun Life group of companies operates under the "Sun Life" name strictly as a marketing name, and no legal significance is expressed or implied. In the United States and elsewhere, insurance products are offered by members of the Sun Life group that are insurance companies. Sun Life Financial, Inc., the publicly traded holding company for the Sun Life group of companies, is not an insurance company and does not guarantee the obligations of these insurance companies. Each insurance company relies on its own financial strength and claims-paying ability.
